SUMMER SCHOOLS AT UNIVERSITY

Announcement of Plans for the Season's Work Outlined by Prof.
Messenger.

The second summer school at the University of Vermont will convene July 3 to August 11 inclusive. Professor J. F. Messenger, dean of the department of education, has issued an attractive bulletin of 30 pages in which is outlined the proposed work of the school.

The session of 1911 will continue the policy of placing emphasis upon work for teachers. Besides the members of the university faculty who will give courses for teachers, several instructors from outside have been secured.
All of these are specialists in their various subjects. Miss Hinman will return and give courses in their respective lines.

Professor Woodruff whose course is Greek, graduated at the university of Vermont in the class of '75 and afterward studied in Germany and in Greece, and since '87 has been professor of Greek in Bowdoin college. He is the author of a Greek Prose Composition, and is recognized as one of the leading classical scholars in New England. His course is in Greek literature.

Dr. Robert T. Kerlin is one of the few men of high literary attainments who have given special attention to literature for children. Dr. Kerlin has been a student at Chicago university, Johns Hopkins, Harvard and Yale, and received his doctorate from Yale. He is the author of several books. His course in juvenile literature will be of great value to every teacher.

Miss Ogilvie is a teacher of wide and successful experience in both rural and city schools, and is now a member of the faculty of the Teachers' Training school, Baltimore, Md. She has been a student at the university of Virginia and at Chicago university.

Mrs. Duggan has been a student at the Chicago Training School for Teachers and at Chicago university, and is now in charge of the domestic science and arts course in Burlington high school.

be announced, Dr. Henry Holt; The Geology of Vermont, Professor G. H.
Perkins; subject to be announced, President Charles H. Spooner; Ancient Folk of Music and Its Development from the Twelfth Century, Professor Alfred Larsen. A musical recital will be given by Professor Alfred Larsen and Joseph Sauer, assisted by other musicians.

the university. Special lecturers and

About the State

The corn canner at Westminster is offering to contract for sweet corn at $12 a ton, an advance of $1 a ton over last year.

The Standard Granite Quarries company of Bozrah is having a very prosperous season and has over 100 cutters and work ahead for four or five years.

The former board of license commissioners was reappointed in Bennington Friday and consists of Wilton A. Viall, Dr. Fred S. Pratt and Frank E. Battles.

Mrs. Lois Barnes of Island Pond is justly proud of the fact she accomplished last week at the age of 92 years, when she walked a distance of two miles and was not extraordinarily fatigued at the end of her journey.

Henry Lincoln, a young Stamford boy, was badly injured March 8, when a playmate, while chopping at a small tree with an axe, missed the tree and struck the Lincoln boy in the ankle near the joint, nearly severing the foot.
There is a chance that it may be saved.

Many of the farmers in the vicinity of Middlebury, who put potatoes in their cellars last fall, with the hope of obtaining a higher price, have been greatly disappointed, as potatoes are now selling in that section for 30 cents a bushel or five cents lower than last fall.

Alvah Blake of Island Pond had a narrow escape from death recently, while attempting to get on a moving train at Stark, N. H. His feet slipped and his head struck so near the wheels that the top of his hat was cut off, leaving the rim only. One hand was badly scratched.

The newly formed Egg Mountain club, which was started by a number of Brooklyn sportsmen, has completed negotiations for a preserve near the New York line, the property containing about 15,000 acres in Sandgate, Manchester and Rupert, and being a tract about four miles square. There will be fish hatch-eries, breeding pens for grouse, pheasants and quail, scientific forestry experiments and there are thousands of wild apple trees which will be built and grafted by one of the agricultural colleges without cost to the club.

R. D. Beals Resigns at Rutland.
Rutland, March 20.—R. D. Beals resigned Saturday as manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph exchange in this city after having been in the employ of the company since 1882. The exchange started with less than 100 subscribers and to-day there are more than 1,700. Mr. Beals resigns because of ill health and has no plans for the future. His successor has not been named.

FOR STONING TRAIN.
Charlotte Youngster Was Brought into Court Yesterday.
Burlington, March 20.—On Saturday, a 7-year-old boy named Howard Mc-Duffey was brought up from Charlotte by Deputy Sheriff O. G. Carpenter on the charge of throwing a stone at a passing Rutland railroad train ten days ago. The stone broke a glass in the vestibule. Not many weeks before, the same thing occurred. It is generally supposed that the stone throwing is the work of coasting youngsters in Charlotte, who occasionally take a shot at a passing train. Young Mr. McDuffey pleaded guilty in a way, and his case was continued two months for final disposition.

AWARDS PLAINTIFF $206.92.
Decision at Rutland in Case of Dr. C. W.
Strobell vs. John Morrison.
Rutland, March 20.—The jury in the case of Dr. C. W. Strobell vs. John Morrison, which began Thursday in the Rutland county court, returned a verdict Saturday afternoon, awarding the plaintiff $206.92.

Morrison sustained a fracture of the leg in February, 1909, and Dr. Strobell was the surgeon employed. The leg was amputated below the knee the following August.

The defendant alleged that the amputation was made necessary through the unskillfulness and neglect of Dr. Stro-bell and refused to pay the bill.

ORGANIZATION GROWING.
Marble City Council, U. C. M., Holds Its Election.
Rutland, March 20.—Marble City council, U. C. M., had its annual meeting Saturday, the session, combining both a business meeting and a social feature, lasting through the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon six candidates were initiated, making the membership 75. There were two visitors from Rutland. These officers were elected:

Past counselor, H. C. Kirk; senior counselor, F. W. Knight; junior councilor, F. K. Davidson; conductor, W. C.
Matot; page, F. W. Hayward; sentinel, G. W. Jones; secretary-treasurer, W. F.
Burbank; members of executive committee, Richard Ryan, P. B. King; delegate to grand council at New Haven, Conn., H. C. Kirk.

Following the election, supper was served to about 100 members of the council and their families. In the evening there was a public installation of the officers by F. L. True, past senior counselor, and dancing followed.

FOR THROUGH ROUTE.

Boston & Maine May Electrify from North Adams to Pownal.

North Adams, Mass., March 20.—There is a report current here that the Boston & Maine will push the electrification of its tracks as far west as Pownal, Vt., at once. Pownal is about 12 miles from this city.

It is stated that the contractors now on the work of electrifying the Hoosac tunnel and the Boston & Maine tracks from the tunnel to this city have been instructed to remain on the ground, though the tunnel is near completion.

The last Vermont legislature gave the New Haven road the right to run trains over their street railways in that state.
At the present time the North Adams & Bennington street railway, which passes through Pownal, is running a special through service car between Bennington and New York City, passengers changing from the railroad to the street railway at Williamstown, five miles west of here.

The electrification of the Boston & Maine to Pownal, where direct connection could be made with the Berkshire street railway, would make it possible for the New Haven and Boston & Maine to run their New York trains by the tunnel electric locomotives through to Bennington and thus directly to southern Vermont for through traffic to New York.

Boston & Maine officials will not talk about the report.
